On March 19, Governor Ricketts issued Executive Order 20-05 extending the time to meet vehicle titling and registration requirements that were due on or after March 1, 2020. In addition, Tax Commissioner Tony Fulton has also issued waivers of any penalties and interest for failure to timely pay sales taxes associated with late titling or registration of motor vehicles, all-terrain vehicles, utility-type vehicles, and motorboats. This relief is granted automatically, there is no need to apply for the waiver. This relief is provided with respect to purchases or leases made on or after March 1, 2020, and ends 30 days after the Governor rescinds Executive Order 20-05.
