Present: Jackie Russell, Rose Nelson, Amy Peterson, Jeff Hackerott, Ruth Sorenson, Jessie Case, Allison Rauch

Proceedings:

Announcement of the open meetings act available on the Property Assessment Website.

Guests in attendance: Nora Borer Liaison, Property Assessment Division and Debra Williams Attorney, Property Assessment Division

The minutes were reviewed from the November 3, 2022 meeting. Jeff Hackerott made a motion to accept the minutes as presented and Jackie Russell seconded. Motion carried.

Discussion about suggested 2023 Education Calendar:

- Amy Peterson made a suggestion for classes without a determined location to consider the use of the NACO building in Lincoln. Able to use for free.
- NACO West is also an option once build is completed.
- Jackie Russell suggested the Justice Center in Broken Bow.
- Ruth Sorenson mentioned that we need to keep the location central such as North Platte and Kearney for our western counties.
- Scott Johnson class is in the works and there will be a meeting in January with him to discuss logistics as far as potential counties for the classes
- Rose Nelson would like a class about data collection and requested the possibility of Mark Loose teaching.
 - ✓ Will need to figure out how to offer to all counties.
 - ✓ Need more discussion as to where to have it and when.
- Ruth Sorenson discussed Nameplate Capacity Tax Webinar
 - ✓ Jeff Hackerott suggested doing both as a webinar and at workshop
 - ✓ Jackie Russell—do webinar prior to valuations?
 - ✓ Jessie Case agreed to hold webinar January 17th at 9 a.m. (CT)
 - ✓ Amy Peterson made a motion to schedule the webinar and Jackie Russell seconded. Motion carried.

Other items of discussion:

Jackie Russell is working to set up training hours for PAD at workshop and will get Ruth an agenda once available.

Jackie Russell made a motion to adjourn, Jeff Hackerott seconded the motion. Meeting was adjourned at 3:19 p.m. (CT)
