Instructions

Purpose of Form. The Notice of Qualified Equity Investment for the New Markets Job Growth Investment Tax Credit, Form 8874N-A, is used by a CDE to provide the Nebraska Department of Revenue with evidence of its receipt of a cash investment.

Who Must File. The Form 8874N-A must be filed by any CDE that receives a cash investment from a taxpayer who acquired a QEI in the CDE eligible for Nebraska New Markets Job Growth Investment Tax Credits.

When and Where to File. The Form 8874N-A must be filed within 10 business days after the CDE receives the cash investment. A separate Form 8874N-A must be filed for each taxpayer making a QEI. Attach evidence that the QEIs certified by Nebraska have been designated as federal QEIs.

Mail the Form 8874N-A and evidence to:
 Nebraska Department of Revenue
 PO Box 94818
 Lincoln, NE 68509-4818

The CDE must also provide a copy of this form to the taxpayer who made the QEI.

Signature. This form must be signed by an executive officer of the CDE. An executive officer includes an officer, or other individual, who has the authority to sign for and make representations on behalf of the CDE.
