Instructions

Who May File. Any eligible individual may file the Purchase of a Nebraska Residence in a Designated Extremely Blighted Area Credit, Form 1040N-EB to claim the credit and compute any unused tax credit to carry forward.

When to File. The Form 1040N-EB must be completed and attached to the individual income tax return filed for the tax year that includes the date the primary residence located in a designated extremely blighted area was purchased and any subsequent year to which any unused credit is carried forward and used.

Eligible Individuals. The Nebraska Residence in a Designated Extremely Blighted Area Credit may be claimed by individuals that purchased a Nebraska residence in a designated extremely blighted area. It must be the individual's primary residence; and the individual cannot have purchased the residence from a family member of the individual or family member of the individual's spouse.

Family member means individual's spouse, child, parent, brother, sister, grandchild, or grandparent, whether by blood, marriage, or adoption.

The purchase must have been made in a taxable year beginning or deemed to begin on or after January 1, 2020 and before January 1, 2026. The tax credit may only be claimed once with respect to a single residence.

The tax credit recaptured if the individual claiming the tax credit sells or otherwise transfers the residence or quits using the residence as his or her primary residence within five years after the end of the taxable year in which the residence was purchased. When the nonrefundable tax credit is recaptured, the individual must file an amended return for the initial year the credit was claimed and each subsequent year the tax credit was carried forward and used.

Records. Eligible individuals must retain the purchase records and documentation indicating that the Nebraska primary residence was located in a designated extremely blighted area for at least five years after the residence was purchased or at least three years after the end of the last tax year the credit was used, whichever period expires later.

Property ID or Parcel ID. Enter the number assigned by the county to the property. This number may be found on the County Assessment Notice or the Real Estate Tax Statement issued by the county where the property is located. The property ID or parcel ID number may also be found using the County Assessors and Parcel Search.

How to Complete Form, 1040N-EB

Part A – Property Information

Part A is used to identify the Nebraska primary residence purchased in a designated extremely blighted area.

Line 1. Enter the date the Nebraska primary residence was purchased.

If the property is not your primary residence or the property is not in a designated extremely blighted area, do not complete the form, you do not qualify for the credit.

If you answered yes to both questions on line 1, attach documentation indicating the property is in a designated extremely blighted area.

Documentation can be obtained from the city planning department where the residence is located. City planning departments may provide information regarding the designated extremely blighted areas on their websites along with lookup tools or maps. City planning departments without the information on their websites may be contacted via phone to obtain the information.

The City of Omaha Planning Department website includes an interactive look-up tool to find properties in the extremely blighted areas in Omaha.

The City of Lincoln Urban Development website includes a look-up tool used to determine if the property is in an extremely blighted area in Lincoln.

Line 2. Enter the seller's name. If you purchased the primary residence from a family member or spouse's family member, do not complete the form, you do not qualify for the tax credit.

Line 3. Enter the address and property ID or parcel ID of the property.

Part B – Computation of the Credit

Part B is used to claim the credit and determine the unused amount to carry forward to subsequent tax years.

Line 4. Enter $5,000 if you purchased a Nebraska primary residence in an extremely blighted area in 2020.

Line 9. Amount to be carried forward. Any designated extremely blighted area tax credit may be carried forward to subsequent tax years until used. Eligible individuals will need to complete and attach the Form 1040N-EB to the individual income tax return for each year a portion of the tax credit is used.
